

Listen to this Life

“The LORD will fulfill His purpose for me.” (Ps. 138:8)

Listen to this Life invites us to take a “time apart” from the fast-paced busyness characteristic of our modern day lives. In this set – apart time, we can begin to see and hear some of God’s promptings. Our challenge is to make ourselves available to see the signposts and follow His calling. Sometimes it helps to have a travel guide and companion coach to help us read the signposts and the map while we seek wisdom from above.

With the guidance of a skilled coach, we examine the seasons of our lives, our goals, values, core needs, and most satisfying ministry, work and life experiences. We examine the habits and perceptions that work for us and those that may be holding us back, perhaps even tripping us.

We see with new eyes options and choices which may have eluded us previously.

Grounded in a solid Christian worldview, we utilize the highly creative PaperRoom System (PRS) to guide our exploration. We use the ChoicePoints Coaching Methodology to introduce change.
